

116

R

SECRET

Topics on Which Positions Required

DEPARTMENT OF STATE A/CDC/MB

REVIEWED BY W. M. H. H. DATE 6/10/88

1. Air surveillance of ~~airships~~ and ~~U-2s~~ ~~airships~~ during dismantling.

() EXCISE () DECLASSIFY in PART
() DENY () Non-responsive info.
FOI NO or PA exemptions _____

-- by UN or US?

TS authority to _____
() CLASSIFY as _____ OADR
() DOWNGRADE TS to () S or () C. OADR

-- if by UN, what standards are to be applied?

2. Need, if any, for ground observation or inspection during dismantling (excluding port inspections).

3. Arrangements at ports in Cuba or from ships outside ports for

(a) Monitoring for future Soviet arm shipments, and

(b) The out shipment of dismantled weapons.

-- Role of Red Cross - how to staff the Red Cross, their organizational set-up, the number of people of whom they would be composed.

Procedures to be followed in such monitoring.

possibility of a troika or a quadrupartite arrangement involving the US, UN, USSR, and possibly Cuba.

4. Definition of offensive weapons.

-- do we include Russian technicians?

SECRET

87- 0082114

5. Spelling

12
CLASSIFIED

...out US guarantee not to invade.

--banning of subversive activities by Cuba in rest of Latin America; is this to be a part of the deal?

-- what about guarantees by other Latin American countries?

6. Duration of inspection and verification arrangements,

-- how much beyond the dismantling period does the monitoring to continue?

7. US position on further suspension of blockade and surveillance beyond Wednesday should U Thant or some of his party decide to remain in Cuba.

Note: John MacNaughton, the General Counsel of the Department of Defense, is working on most of the above items. The principal State Department item is no. 5--the spelling of the guarantee.

031507000